

ECOLOGICAL DESIGN OF GRAVITY FOUNDATIONS

The concrete foundations have a weight of 60 tonnes and are 7 meters in diameter. The holes in the foundation have been designed with regards to environmental reasons. Previous research has shown that the holes can be inhabited by fish, crabs and lobsters, and thus enhancing the local biodiversity. The issue of local biodiversity will be further investigated within the environmental monitoring programme in the Maren project.

PHOTO: VATTENFALL