

De-regulation and Energy Market Advisory Services

- Institutional capacity building: Assisting in restructuring of state and overall responsible energy institutions: ministries, commissions, regulators and system operators.
 - Assisting institutions in the transition of deregulating and restructuring the energy sector.
 - Advisory services to energy sector authorities.
 - Improving structures and processes for the enforcement of the regulations.

- Legal framework development: Assisting to make legal and regulatory changes to improve the operation of the sector and the market.
 - Preparing laws, regulations and standards.
 - Determining price schemes.

- De-regulation and energy market: Assisting to introduce market conditions to the energy sector, allowing competition and greater efficiency.
 - Determining conditions to assure open access to the power network.
 - Determining conditions to promote the investment and development of the power network.
 - Determining retribution schemes in accordance with a deregulated energy market.

- Tariff studies: Transmission and distribution asset valuation and tariff studies for regulated customers and open access charges.